

CBF Conflict of Interest Statement

February 2023

CBF manages potential or declared conflicts of interest in accordance with its published Conflicts of Interest Policy.

On an annual basis CBF collects declarations of interests from the CBF Board of Directors, from CBF employees and from members of the CBF Oversight Committee. All potential and declared conflicts of interest have been considered by the CBF Risk and Compliance Committee, which determined that no conflicts of interest have been identified that have not been appropriately managed to remove any associated risks.

An analysis of the CBF ownership structure has been considered by the CBF Risk and Compliance Committee which has determined that no conflicts of interests have been identified.
